mid-complexity spellcaster

The isolated tribes of the northern forests are said to worship the stars themselves. Using the material found in the meteors that often fall there, an elusive order known as the Starcasters are able to grant themselves magical abilities. By sacrificing parts of their flesh, they enhance their bodies with smelted metals and chiseled rock to harness the energy of the cosmos.

Primary - Starburst

~quick, ranged projectile attack

Secondary - Tenacity

~slow melee attack with pushback, can be used to parry

Special - Reality Tear

~massive damage, medium radius, lasts 3 seconds
